GIANTS WIN AND HOLD SECOND PLACE HORGAN MAKES RECORD IN STONE THROW

NEW YORK, SATURDAY, AUGUST 25, 1906.

Irish Giant, of the New York Athletic 25 Club, Hurls 28-Pounder 35 Feet. 4 1-2 Inches in the Hibernian Athletic Games.

LOST PRIZE BY HANDICAP TO SHERIDAN AND FLANAGAN

His Record Stands However, and This Is the First Time It Has Been Changed in Sixteen Years-Big Crowd at Celtic Park.

The A. O. H. two-day carnival of sports at Celtic Park started off this afternoon with a record-breaking feat by Dennis Horgan, the Irish giant weight throtwer of the New York Athletic Club. Horgan threw the 28 pound stone 35 feet 4 1-2 inches, beating the record an inch.

It was the first time in sixteen years that the mark of 35 feet 4 1-2 inches has been exceeded. Up to this afternoon the record was held by Willie Real, of Ireland.

Others were a special one hundredyard run, 440-yard handicap, one-mile relay for the Catbolic schools, and a mile handicap open. The lesser attractions were the putting of a 25-pound stone, unlimited run and follow, and an individual tug-of-war.

Owing to the abominably bad street railway service, a single line running here to-day on account of damage to a bridge near Long Island City, it was long after 3 o'clock before the spectators began to arrive and after 2.50 before the first event was begun.
